Customer Reviews

Thinking sexually and communicating sexually is a big part of acting and enhancing your sex life.

But let's face it, none of us (or at least very few) are born with these great skills.

Luckily, this book is around and this tiny pamphlet will show you the way. This book does not simply give the 200 dirty talk examples; it provides these examples during various stages of intimacy, with explanations and helpful hints. For the socially awkward (including yours truly) or just adventurous this book is welcome relief.

I love how the author eases you into dirty talk, and makes sure that you know how okay it is and how comfortable you can be with it. I also love the examples! I can even imagine my shy girlfriend using some of them, which was the point of my buying this. I would recommend this book to anyone who is shy with dirty talk and wants to explore!

This book is geared towards people who are brand new to the concept of talking dirty. It has a lot of good ideas to help you break out of your shell if you are shy. However, if you are not brand new to talking dirty and are looking for some psychological games to play in bed, or some creative ideas to build on basic dirty talk, you should look elsewhere. By no means am I a pro, but I did not get more than a couple of new words out of this book.

I'm glad I decided to download this. After reading it, I have gained some insight as to "spice things up". I feel by having a healthy, happy and open sex life with your partner is key.

Very simple. Extremely short. No page numbers. Good for a beginner, but I was expecting much more from a BOOK.

Great to have the perspective from a man and what they like to hear. Language is more graphic than books written by women. This advice works better for my guy.

40 pages, double spaced very large print, way too costly. Use your imagination, let your inhibitions go, and don't waste your money on this one.

This is a quick read and doesn't waste your time with non-relevant information. Very useful and well-written. Highly recommend.
