Customer Reviews

While chapter headings, presented in the form of questions, vary from book to book, the same basic information is covered in each: lifestyles, food, clothing, religion and beliefs, sports and games, tribal history, and current realities. Text is presented --Library Media Connection
This book discusses foods, clothing, housing, beliefs, and life today pertaining to Indians of the Northwest Coast. Using the format of answers to questions, it gives quite a complete overview of the Native American tribes living along the Northwest coast --Book Pushin Cats Blog (Tri State Young Adult Review Committee)

Love this book! I bought this Native American book along with 3 others. I am very pleased with the books! They are full of great information and pictures my students are going to enjoy!

This product is a must for school Native American research. My students and I have made good use as a research tool.
