

The book was found

Tarboro To Katmandu

Synopsis

Tarboro to Katmandu, an autobiography of Job Kitchin Savage's unusual life of 90 years. He talks about the interesting aspects of life in hometown Tarboro - education, athletics, social and economic conditions during the Great Depression and how these factors shaped his life. He tells of marriage to his lovely/smart college sweet heart, of four years in the army during WW II, seven years of college under the GI Bill to earn a PhD, employment with the US Department of Agriculture in Washington followed by 20 years of work overseas in 53 countries as an Agricultural Development Consultant. His writing style is conversational. Pictures through out illustrate his unusual and colorful life. A good read.

Book Information

Paperback: 240 pages

Publisher: AuthorHouse; 1st edition (March 18, 2005)

Language: English

ISBN-10: 142081902X

ISBN-13: 978-1420819021

Product Dimensions: 8.2 x 0.6 x 11 inches

Shipping Weight: 1.1 pounds (View shipping rates and policies)

Average Customer Review: 5.0 out of 5 stars 1 customer review

Best Sellers Rank: #4,984,457 in Books (See Top 100 in Books) #34 inÂ Books > Travel > Asia > Nepal > Kathmandu #21583 inÂ Books > Biographies & Memoirs > Travelers & Explorers #29911 inÂ Books > Biographies & Memoirs > Leaders & Notable People > Military

Customer Reviews

Born on his father's farm November 2, 1914. Began school in a two room country school. Was 8 when his mother died. Went to live with his mother's sister in Tarboro N.C.. Finished high school at Presbyterian Junior College in Maxton, NC. Earned B. S. and M.S. degrees from North Carolina State College and a PhD from University of Wisconsin in Agricultural Economics. Employed by US Department of Agriculture in Washington, DC. Retired in February 1972. Worked next 20 years as an agricultural development consultant in 53 countries overseas. Served four years in WW II as an Anti Aircraft Officer and retired from National Guard in 1965 with rank of Lieutenant Colonel. Has avid interest in National Politics, and is knowledgeable.

Job is my husband's uncle. He and his lovely wife Agnes left their small town in NC and traveled the world. Job served in the military during WWII and then went to college in NC eventually earning his doctorate. He worked for the US Agriculture Dept and has told the story of his interesting life and travels.

Download to continue reading...

Tarboro to Katmandu A journey to Katmandu (the capital of Nepaul) with the camp of Jung Bahadoor; A Journey to Katmandu Just for a Laugh in Katmandu: And Off the Beaten Trek in the Himalayas

Contact Us

DMCA

Privacy

FAQ & Help