My daughter is meeting with other middle school girls and they are going through this book together.

She is enjoying the learning and time with the other girls. This process in the book is making her feel amazing! This is so important at this awkward stage and age!

good information for my pre-teen daughter

This is a great book for any teen girl who wants to learn more about how to study her Bible. I highly recommend this book along with all of Elizabeth George books. You can't go wrong.
