The Art Of Divine Contentment (Vintage Puritan)

Synopsis

Thomas Watson (1620-1686) was Thomas Watson is one of the most famous Puritan preachers in history, and his writings during the 17th century are still read across the world today. He was an English, Nonconformist, Puritan preacher and author. He was educated at Emmanuel College, Cambridge, where he was noted for remarkably intense study. Based on Philippians 4:11, "I have learned, in whatever state I am therewith to be content", Watson considers the great dishonor done to almighty God by the sin of discontent. The doctrine of Christian contentment is clearly illustrated and profitably applied. The special cases where, through changes in providences, discontentment most commonly arises are examined and preservatives are applied to the soul. This is one of Watson's most treasured works, and shares equal billing with Jeremiah Burrough's classic The Rare Jewel of Christian Continent. It was first published in a lithograph of a 19th century edition, but the publishers were compelled to retype that work and publish it in an entirely new book so as to give an even broader readership

Not a great translation and it becomes quite distracting. I thought it was just me but I see others have noticed this as well. I'm only a few pages in but it's too noticeable. Even the introductory scripture has a typo.

A convicting treatise in which Watson explains Christian contentment and how necessary it is in true faith. Highly recommended for any believer.

This is a thought provoking book on the subject of contentment. Although a Puritan preacher, I could clearly understand his points that still apply to us today.

A Classic!

thank you are efficient and quick! I love my books and will be using you guys to enlighten and educate people.

Absolutely the best book ever on how to have peace!

Thomas Watson convicts the heart

For many years I have wanted to be content as Paul says, he is content in all things. "The Art of Divine Contentment" CD is wonderful. I can listen to the CD while I do house work (don't run the vacc.) or in the car. I love learning about Jesus Christ, Christian History all of which I did not receive in Church. One needs to search for the truth in Book's, CD's and DVD's. I have surely found them and I hope you will also. You can purchase American's Founding Fathers Bibly intitlled " The Geneva Bible", year 1599. You will be glad you did and you will want to share what you learn.
