Very rarely does going slow save time, but that's exactly what happens when slow cookers are involved. There's nothing easier than prepping the night before and then turning on the cooker in the morning, so that when you return home from work, dinner is hot and waiting to be enjoyed. That's why cooks in a hurry will welcome Betty Crocker's Slow Cooker Cookbook, an updated guide to using this ultimate all-in-one-pot meal maker. The book opens with a quick refresher on how to best use a slow cooker and then offers tips on adapting other recipes to this alternative cooking method. The recipes provided include obvious candidates like long-simmered soups--a goulash or stew--and slow-roasted meats such as pot roast. These dishes are guaranteed to convert newcomers to the appliance, while the unexpected recipes will please more familiar hands. Amazingly enough, you can make ribs, casseroles, pot pies, fondues, and even cakes in a slow cooker--and Betty Crocker's Slow Cooker Cookbook will tell you exactly how. --Sumi Hahn Almquist

Great book with wonderful recipes - Arizona heat makes people reluctant to turn on an oven so a crock pot is the way to go and this book gives numerous recipes which are easy.

I can now cook pretty well with this book and my cooker. Very helpful for a person wanting to learn how to use a slow cooker.

It arrived April 16th, well in advance of the time frame that was given to me. Perfect condition, nice book with lots of pictures of what the dish should look like.

Try out a few recipes and you won't be disappointed. Convenience and tastiness are the main events. Enjoy and skip the calorie count - just work-out extra and appreciate the day.

Betty Crocker is the best. Have had a slow cooker for years and only made chili, soup or spaghetti sauce. Noe, I can try some new recipies. Buyer got it her right on time.

Well, color me impressed. I was not expecting much from this cookbook - didn't think there was any way Betty Crocker would be "with it" - but this book kept showing up in my recommendations, and I do love my crock pot, so I ordered it. The book arrived today and I'm in love! Not only is the book full of interesting, yet easy, recipes, but there are plenty that are relatively lean (

I bought this as a gift for a friend who recently ought a slow cooker and he loves the book. He has already tried several of the recipes and has found them to be quite easy to follow and tasty!
