Kristine Forney has been a member of the Music History/Musicology faculty at California State University, Long Beach, since 1978. She specializes in Renaissance music, is a performer and teacher of historical instruments, and is the author of numerous scholarly articles exploring diverse facets of Renaissance musical life and practices. She has taught music appreciation to thousands of undergraduate students, and has been an author of The Enjoyment of Music since 1988.

This is required for my music appreciation class and i am glad i got it here for only one penny because it is a stinker. Poorly written...even my professor admits it. It leaves out explaining many terms ...and who has time to keep checking another source? the CDs are good though.

Welp, pretty much if you want a scratched to poop book, be my guest buying this! For just a penny and shipping you can waist your time for days!

many tunes from movies we all watch

The quality of the recordings makes this book/cd package worth the $++. Add the superbly written book, and you have a great combo if you're a music connoisseur. Note: If you buy this used then make sure it comes with the discs. I saw some of the used copies didn't.

service was good, but i got the wrong product. This isn't the Norton recordings required for my class. so that was hard to tell. luckily i shared the real ones from a friend.speedy delivery

I bought this for use in a class that I took. The CDs worked without issue because they came in perfect condition.
