Who Was Susan B. Anthony?

Synopsis

Susan B. Anthony may be an international icon but her campaign for women's rights had personal roots. Working as a school teacher in New York, Anthony refused to settle for less pay than her male colleagues which ignited her lifelong devotion to women's equality. Anthony toured the United States and Europe giving speeches and publishing articles as one of the most important advocates of women's rights. Learn more about the woman behind the movement in Who Was Susan B. Anthony?

Customer Reviews

Pamela Pollock and Meg Belviso are authors of several books in this series, including Who Is George Lucas? and Who Was Alfred Hitchcock?

I have a 6 year old daughter who prefers history over fairies at the library. I ordered a set of the Who Was books for her for Christmas and she chose to begin with Susan B. Anthony. Although we have read other books in this series and found them to be age appropriate, we found this one written at an adult level and had trouble keeping up with the plot. Too difficult for a 6 year old to follow...even mom was confused.

These are great books. All of the Who Was books are excellent for young readers. My daughter gets very excited when she can teach us a little something about history and she seems to truly find things interesting. I think this is a great read for grades 3 and 4

We purchased for a student presentation. It was good, but has better titles for a SBA biography for kids. Compare to the TIME FOR KIDS bio and the Ready-To-Read bio for better options.

My second grader read this on Election Day. Gave her a great frame of reference the following day, when she was quite upset. Susan B never gave up, and neither should she!

Great book for young kids to learn about Miss Anthony. Perfect way to teach reader about the suffrage movement. Well written and easily understood.

I absolutely love this series of books. A must have for any homeschool library.

Daughter loves the book, nice addition to the "Who Was" series

Bought for the grandkiddos, they love them, thanks!!!!
