Customer Reviews

"While active, salty sailors will find the volume edifying, something to read aloud to their passengers and mates, armchair sailors will find it equally enjoyable for its page-turning tales and vivid local history."

Charles McLane is a professor emeritus of government at Dartmouth College and has written several books on Sino/Soviet relations. His late wife Carol collaborated closely with him on the Islands series, and in raising six children. The McLanes have been longtime summer residents of Brooklin, Maine. Picked this book up to help complete my set. Love the information included and the pictures and maps. Well done.

Sometimes dry reading; a reference book on islands in Downeast Maine. If you live in the area or visit the islands the book comes alive.
