I use this book regularly...it is a must for anyone wishing to get autographs and collectibles from their favorite celebrity...I have found this book and its sources to be accurate...I use it for my company...if you are famous you are in this book....

A number of the a-list celebrity addresses were incorrect and the letters were returned stating unable to deliver or not at this address.

Wrote to 100 celebrity names, in 2 days, received 4 back due to no forwarding address.....

great book, has every thing i was looking for

I found this to be less than useful - there is no indexing that allows you to splice the list in various ways. Very unhelpful and a waste of money.

a gift , was enjoyed

The ads for this book say that the addresses for these celebrities are "guaranteed verified." All that means is that the postal service says that there is a house at that address. It does NOT mean that the celebrity you are contacting lives there. Also the author "guarantees" your postage back if the address is wrong. Lets pretend that you get a letter sent to your house with the name "Joe Dokes" on it. Assume that the address is yours. How many of you would take the letter to the post office, stand in line for 20 minutes and tell the clerk you are returning this because Joe Dokes doesn't live there??? People would just throw the letter away. So you really have no way of knowing if your letter got to Tom Cruise or not. Just because it didn't come back doesn't mean that Tom got it. And the Postal Service only returns priority and express mail by law--all other classes are never returned to the sender, but simply destroyed. I find it odd that most of the people reviewing this book have never used it. Read their words and you will see this. Buyer beware on this item.

I Love it! I've been using The Celebrity Black Book for a long time - combined with the online database! Great Resources!!
