Larry the Cucumber and Bob the Tomato are hard-boiled detectives who must find a missing second-grader named Annie. As it turns out, Annie has been stricken by stage fright and has hidden herself away in an empty classroom. Larry accidentally saves the day, and everybody learns a valuable lesson about dealing with fear. This vividly illustrated book comes packaged with an accompanying Silly Songs Music CD.

Doug Peterson is the Gold-Medallion winning author of over 60 books, including 42 for the popular VeggieTales series and 4 historical novels. He lives in Champaign, Illinois, where he also writes for the University of Illinois.

It was fine. Was a little disappointed in the cd that came with it. Only 4 songs and the story was not included.
