I am, at 81, the last surviving Master of Ceremonies, who served at the altar of St. Faith, Cowes, Isle of Wight, when Rev. E.C.R. Lamburn was the Vicar, for over twenty-five years. I was given a personal copy of the Ninth Edition, by Rev. Lamburn. I have now purchased several copies of the Eleventh Edition, as gifts to my friends, some of whom are priests and all of whom serve at the altars of churches of the Anglican Communion. This is a good and thoroughly researched book, which should be in the possession of every Anglican priest, Eucharistic minister and altar server. It is still used as the principal handbook of Anglo-Catholic Churches, world-wide. I commend it to all who worship in the traditional manner.

I'm a liturgy junky and I'm just replacing my copy which disappeared a few years ago.

Thorough and detailed. I purchased this as a gift for a friend. It has become her most favored resource.

I purchased this copy via and was looking for this book as it was recommended to me as being able to provide a lot of specific detail on Anglican ritual. It was exactly what I was looking for and the copy that I was able to purchase, quite reasonably, has provided me with the information I was after. Very detailed, but well worth purchasing.
