Customer Reviews

These gripping, full-cast radio dramas from the BBC bring to life some of Conan Doyle's most beloved Sherlock Holmes stories, including "A Scandal in Bohemia," "The Red-Headed League," "The Adventure of the Speckled Band," "The Musgrave Ritual," "The Empty House," and "The Dancing Men." In each adaptation, accompanied by music and slick sound effects, Holmes use observation and deduction to discover the truth about strange hieroglyphics, a secret society, a missing photograph, long-lost treasure, and much more. Supported by a host of talented players, Clive Merrison and Michael Williams demonstrate wonderful chemistry as Holmes and Watson. Merrison portrays Holmes as confident, curt, and excitable, while Williams's Watson perfectly captures the diligent, doting assistant. A real treat for Holmes fans, these stories, particularly "The Adventure of the Speckled Band," offer real moments of excitement and even terror. (Oct.) (c) Copyright PWxyz, LLC. Sir Arthur Conan Doyle was born in Edinburgh and studied medicine. He began writing while he waited for his practice to grow and, with 1887's A Study in Scarlet, created Sherlock Holmes, one of the most famous literary characters of all time. He was a volunteer physician in the Boer War and wrote a book on spiritualism. Clive Merrison, who plays Holmes, is an English film, television, stage, and radio actor. He is the only actor to have played Holmes in adaptations of every single Conan Doyle short story and novel about the character.

An excellent production. The audio is nice and clear with a fine cast of actors. I also purchased volume 2 which I haven't heard as of yet but I'm sure it'll be great too.

Great on a long drive, or a quiet evening at home wonderful-as advertised

like old time radio programs, kids would benefit from this because they use their mind and are more creative.

This is a fantastic listening experience - a full cast, with sound effects. I highly recommend it.

Good quality
