I got this for my husband who is really into Confederate Money. He really likes it and says it a great reference. It has large clear pictures of the currency and great descriptions. It's a book that anyone interested in Confederate paper money should have.

am anxious to start utilizing

An excellent reference book about the paper money of the Southern States during the Civil War. If you have any Confederate notes in your collection, or are thinking of purchasing any in the future, buy this very informative book first. It also has excellent photos of each note described.

Great resource for beginning collectors!!

As a collector of Confederate currency you must have this one but it is not a stand alone reference of everything Confederate

Great info and comparative pictures to compare hundreds of notes in different grades, a gotta have for southern currency collectors as myself

Excellent resource. Very pleased.

Excellent resource for collectors
