Jack and Annie are whisked off to the vast plains of Africa, where they must solve Morgan le Fay's third magical riddle. But that's only the beginning! Once the riddle is solved, they still have to get past a pride of lions, a humongous herd of rampaging wildebeests, and one very hungry Masai warrior.

s have an astonishing track record for inspiring readersHighly acclaimed by parents, teachers, and especially kids, these books have an astonishing track record for inspiring readersHighly acclaimed by parents, teachers, and especially kids, these books have an astonishing track record for inspiring readers. With their strong characters, imaginative plots, and just the right dose of history or science, it's no wonder kids love Magic Tree House books.

My daughter loves these books! She has been reading these books since she started second grade. They are easy to read and still have pictures that keep them interested in the books. The author does a great job of describing everything so my daughter can understand what is going on in the story. Normally these books go for $5 or more a piece, so this is the cheapest I have found yet. Wonderful purchase!! Totally worth it!!

My seven year old son loves EVERY SINGLE one of the Magic Tree House books. He is determined to own/read all of them.

I bought a few chapter books for a child's birthday, we ended up buying for our child as well. Magic Tree House chapter books are wonderful. Not too long of a chapter book, very detailed like you are right there with the children in the book. Thank you.

I love the Magic Tree House books. I tutor children and they love these adventures and the books lend themselves to so many mini-lessons!!

my 7 year old loves this series. it is one of the book series that got her reading (she is a wiggler) so no complaints here!

Granddaughter loves these books!

From 9 yo reader: really interesting, I really liked it!! Would tell my friends to get the book, it's amazing!

My 7year old loves Jack and Anniell think I enjoy them even more!
