Excellent transaction. Item as described and fast shipping. Thank You.

Fun book for any rugger. Good short stories. Well-written. Totally recommend!

Received as advertised in a timely manner.

A romp through the peculiar pitches of rugby, with goofy tales. Divided by country: "England's Ruck and Rollers," "Flower of Scotland," "Welsh Wit," "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling," "Men in Black," etc., the chapters contain rugby jokes and humorous lore relevant to each rugby team's nationality and beyond. This isn't an instruction manual on rugby union, but a tour de force of robust rugby jocularity for avid fans and players. Catch the story of the Scottish terrier named "Thistle" dancing up on a pub's bar, the harangued Irish bus driver, or the 15 positions tried by Welsh full-back J.P.R. Williams . . .

I bought the book as a gift. It was well received by the recipient. It was a great purchase. I'd recommend it.

I am a recent fan to the game of rugby and I thought this would give me a lot of background and back-stories to fill in some gaps. Some of the stories were very funny, most were droll, dry, English humor. I guess you "had to have been there" for the rest of them. But ... if you are a long-time rugby fan, I think you'll enjoy this book.

Chock full of anecdotes and hilarious stories and jokes involving current and former rugby players from England, Ireland, Scotland, Wales, South Africa, New Zealand, and Australia. A must read for any rugby fan.

Bought this for my friends Christmas present.. Im not into rugby like her but some of these are quite funny
