Finnish-born Jali Wahlsten had a vision of bringing Nordic Åçâ Å“dark rye bread, cinnamon buns and coffeeÅçâ Å• to London and in 2007 opened the Nordic Bakery in Soho. This, the bakeryÅçâ Å„s first cookbook, was conceived by JaliÅçâ Å„s wife Marianna Wahlsten, a journalist and photographer, and written by Miisa Mink, an investor in the business. Miisa comes from a family of passionate bakers. She has had a successful career in branding and design, but in 2007 she decided to leave the corporate life and become a partner in the Nordic Bakery.

This is a great cookbook - clear, concise recipes - and I also wanted to cook almost every recipe in here - which rarely happens with a cookbook. Highly recommend!

It's simply ok. Nothing too exciting about the recipes in my opinion.

Fabulous! Have made several recipes! Love them all! Family loved the Toffee Cake!

Great book, interesting idea's lots of!!

The Scandinavian countries have a variety of baking traditions to share with the world, and lots of good recipes are in this book. The first thing I made was good and well-received. (egg & rice tarts) which I served with soup.

Found this book on a trip to Oslo, Norway. Many recipes that my grandparents made that I had no recipes for. Saw that had it and ordered to save weight in luggage. Was waiting for me when I got home!

greatb experience

Love this cookbook! Great recipes and fairly easy to follow the directions.I am looking forward to trying several more soon.
